

...to a book club meeting

The girls of RSVP Party Planning will help you have a great book club meeting! Here are some suggestions :

- ❖ Make your meeting feel like a real party by sending out invitations.
- ❖ Sadie, Vi, Becca, and Lauren put together a free party planning guide you can download at www.jenmalonewrites.com or www.gailnall.com. It includes playlists, recipes, and more you can use to add more fun to your event.
- ❖ Visit the authors' websites to play attendees a recording of the song Becca wrote and sang to her friends at the Five Alive party.
- ❖ Send everyone home with a party favor you make during the book discussion.

YOU'RE INVITED

JEN MALONE & GAIL NALL

One summer, four best friends, seven parties.
What could possibly go wrong?

discussion questions

- 1) Which of the four girls is most like you?
- 2) Which of them is the most different from you?
- 3) What do each of the girls most want at the beginning of the story? Do they get it by the end?
- 4) What is the best party you ever attended? What made it so great?
- 5) The girls hang out in an abandoned sailboat they call the Purple People Eater. What kind of clubhouse would you want to have?
- 6) Becca, Sadie, Vi, and Lauren are great friends despite all of their differences. What do you think helps them stay close?
- 7) Sandpiper Beach is a quirky town with quirky residents. Who was your favorite islander?
- 8) Becca is not a fan of the Dread Pirate Roberts costumes she has to wear. What's been the worst thing you've ever had to wear?
- 9) If you could start your own business, what would you do and why?
- 10) What do you think is going to happen in You're Invited Too?
